Tort doctrine is complex and nuanced on its own; a torts casebook that mystifies first year students will not help them develop the core skill of legal analysis. Tort Law in Focus presents concepts in a way that students can understand and apply. Rather than hide the ball, Geoffrey Rapp explains new terms clearly, and guides students in the specific techniques of applying tort law to practice-based problems. Along with concrete examples, Tort Law in Focus provides clear and thorough introductions to those areas of tort law (such as proximate cause under the dominant and new Restatement approaches; res ipsa; factual cause, including but-for cause and alternatives in special cases like indivisible injuries and alternative causes; the duty of owners and occupiers of land; and comparative negligence) that are especially challenging for first-year law students. Professors and Students Will Benefit From: Clear introductions and transitional text that frame key rules, concepts, and cases A wide selection of modern, high-interest cases that apply dominant legal rules, and which, where possible, interpret and apply the Restatement (Third) Summaries and discussion of canonical cases that convey the history and context of modern tort law Examples, flow charts and maps that illustrate concepts, rules, and the relationships among parties and interests Consistent use of problems that encourage students to implement "IRAC" (or equivalent) strategies for structuring their analysis Samples of documents commonly used in tort law practice, such as demand letters and complaints

The New York Times Magazine

In his second book, Clydell White, brings his newest addition to his arsenal, entitled The Investment of Love. Love and relationships tend to be one of the biggest challenges people face nowadays. The challenges seem to get worse by the year. The desire to be in a healthy relationship seems to be present amongst most people from all walks of life, however, the knowledge of how to maintain a healthy relationship over many years often remains a mystery. During his 18 year relationship Clyde has faced many challenges with his wife Ebony of over 16 years by his side. He says that his ability to remain focused on making good on his word and reaping the benefits of his investment to love, honor, and cherish her has taught him that successful relationships of all kinds require specific traits that can be taught and learned by both the man and the woman. In the Investment of Love, he gives a detailed snapshot through real life examples, nature, and personal encounters between he and his wife Ebony. Preface: Things have changed, technology is ever advancing, and the culture of our society is a foreign language from the days of an adult's past upbringing. Thus, the days of dating are far beyond sending a handwritten love letter asking someone you think you like, "Do you like me? Please circle yes or no." In fact, the ways we communicate have evolved. Love letters are a thing of the past. The thrill of a steady and patient chase in pursuit of winning the heart of an individual has been robbed by speedy social media inboxing with hopes of expeditiously transitioning into sexting. The sum of these condensed processes usually equal one-night stands filled with mornings of regret. If you have had this type of experience, you are probably suffering from a reservation to try again. So what do you do? If you're like most people, you block out random people and prevent yourself from giving anyone else you are unfamiliar with a chance. Then, you tell yourself you will only get involved with people you really know or have known for some time. Once putting thought into this, you begin to think and search online for friends from your past, classmates, and old work associates. Only to discover them now happily married, or interested in genders opposite of your own! Reality sets in that maybe you didn't know them as well as you thought you did. Either way, your biological clock continues to tick as time waits for no one. You then must face the reality that either you are going to take a risk on love again or stay single for the rest of your life. In the chapters to come, I will use my more than 20 years of experience in finding love and building a healthy marriage with my wife of 16 years. Love is definitely an investment. My question for you is, "Are you prepared for the expense?" Let's find out in the chapters to come. ~Clydell White

The Chapter titles are below: 1. The Investment of Love 2. Processes 3. To Kill a Ladybug 4. Aim for The Head 5. Boaz is not the only Man 6. Ask For Help 7. Men are Cheetah's 8. Let Her Leopard 9. When Fathers Release Sons 10. Dating With A Purpose 11. Communicating on Purpose 12. Public Front, Private Fun
