The Barbour Collection of Connecticut birth, marriage, and death records to about 1850 was the life work of Lucius Barnes Barbour, Connecticut Examiner of Public Records from 1911 to 1934. This present series, under the general editorship of Lorraine Cook White, is a town-by-town transcription of Barbour's celebrated collection. Each volume in the series contains the birth, marriage, and death records of one or more Connecticut towns. (For a list of the other volumes in The Barbour Collection look in our online catalogue under United States--Connecticut, and scroll down the author's column until you get to White.)The town of Windsor is the subject of Volume 55, which was compiled by Lorraine Cook White, the general editor of this entire magnificent series.
