Embargo is the first book to provide a comprehensive overview of oil sanctions. A group of authors, all of whom were intimately involved with the campaigning for and monitoring of the international oil embargo, reveals the story of South Africa's oil under apartheid from the first call for oil sanctions in 1960 to the final lifting in 1993. The book is aimed at readers interested in economic sanctions, the history of apartheid in South Africa, the international oil trade, and action-orientated research.

Safety and Health at Work

This Act reforms the system for immigration, asylum and nationality, following on from the Government's White Paper 'Secure borders, safe haven' (Cm 5387, ISBN 0101538723) published in February 2002. The Act is in eight parts and includes provisions relating to: i) the introduction of a citizenship ceremony including a citizenship pledge, and a requirement for naturalisation applicants to demonstrate sufficient knowledge about life in the UK; ii) a system of accommodation centres built or adapted to accommodate and provide services for a number of asylum-seekers and their dependants on one site; iii) arrangements for detention, temporary release and removal; iv) rules for immigration and asylum appeals; v) provisions relating to immigration procedures, including charges for work permits; and vi) the introduction of new offences and powers of entry to business premises.
