the pupil texts, these resources offer a range of material for the AQA specification. They provide test questions for each chapter together with detailed mark schemes to make assessment easy. Two versions of each question are provided, one allows pupils to write their answers in the spaces provided and the other requires pupils to have separate writing paper. Questions can be grouped according to needs. Master grids are provided to cut and paste tests together in a consistent format to use the resource in any order. Chapter tests can be grouped to form a module test after chapters. End-of-chapter examinations can also be produced in this way. A free non-calculator supplement organised by unit/chapter is also included in this resource.

This adventurous story begins at the New York airport where this holiday-maker was departing of the plane carrying his most prized possession, his loving dog called Skipper. Skipper was much cleverer than his owner took him for, Skipper looked down at the cage door and gnawed at the catch until it was released and off he went. His owner had only realised that he had gone when the cage felt incredibly light, "Hey, stop Skipper come back" his owner frantically shouted. It was no use so he sat down in hope that skipper would eventually see sense and come back, Skipper was always a bit of a trouble maker and today was no exception.
