practicing this skill. Comic books such as Archie, Marvel and eventually Manga nurtured her love for drawing and then later developed her skill for drawing realistically when Interactive Arts Services employed her as a storyboard artist. The job required constant drawing of different people of different ages, sexes and races in various everyday situations, and this constant practice sharpened her skill in realistic drawing. For budding artists, Therese Barleta advises: "Learn to appreciate and enjoy drawing first as a passion, something that you really love to do and not something that you need to do. Looking at other people's beautiful works will help inspire you and fire up your interests. The inspiration will give you the desire to grab a pencil and paper and start drawing. Never lose heart, just keep on practicing, and be sure to always enjoy what you're doing." HowExpert publishes quick 'how to' guides on all topics from A to Z by everyday experts.
